Re: Case Identifier: CGB-CC-1341
CG Docket No. 06-181
Petition for Closed Captioning Exemption
Request for Supplemental Information

Dear Pastor Manley:

This letter concerns your Petition for Exemption from the Federal Communications Commission's (FCC's) closed captioning requirements. After reviewing your Petition, the Consumer and Governmental Affairs Bureau (Bureau) has determined that additional information, as set forth below, is required to enable us to determine whether the programming that is the subject of your Petition should be exempted from the FCC's closed captioning requirements because captioning such programming would be economically burdensome to your organization.

Specifically, your Petition included information about the name of your program, the impact of captioning on your operation, and verifications that you have sought closed captioning assistance from your video programming distributors and additional sponsorship sources. We conclude, however, that because your Petition is missing required information, we cannot take further action on your Petition.

If you wish for your Petition to receive further consideration for a closed captioning exemption, you must supplement your Petition by providing us with the information described below by August 11, 2014, which is 30 days from the date of this letter:

- The nature and cost of the closed captions for the programming. Provide information about your organization's costs associated with closed captioning each specific program for which you are requesting an exemption, and your efforts to find companies that can provide captioning at a reasonable cost.
 - Include documentation for two or more recent quotes you received from closed captioning services to provide closed captioning specifically for your program(s). "Recent" means a quote you obtained within one year of the date of your petition.

You provided three quotes. If you would like for us to consider your quote from Video Caption Corporation, we would need clarification. Your quote from Video Caption

- Current assets are any asset (or resource) as of the last day of the calendar or fiscal year that can be converted into cash within the following year.
 - Examples of current assets for an individual or sole proprietor: cash; checking accounts; savings accounts; investment accounts including money market accounts; certificates of deposit and bonds that will mature within one year; stocks; and trust/endowment account amounts available for that year.
 - Examples of current assets for a corporation: cash; accounts receivable; inventory; marketable securities; and prepaid expenses.
- Current liabilities are obligations (or debts) as of the last day of the calendar or fiscal year that must be paid within the following year.
 - Examples of current liabilities for an individual or sole proprietor: any loans (principal and interest) and mortgage payments (principal, interest, taxes, and insurance) due to be paid within one year; the balance of any credit cards as of the last day of the year; and unpaid bills as of the last day of the year (utility bills, and medical bills).
 - Examples of current liabilities for a corporation: accounts payable; accrued liabilities; notes payable; current portion of long-term debt; and taxes payable.
- Affidavit or declaration. Your supplemental materials and submission must contain a detailed, full showing, supported by a signed and sworn affidavit or signed declaration made under penalty of perjury attesting to the truthfulness and accuracy of the information and representations contained in your submission. An affidavit is a written statement made under oath, before an official who is authorized to administer oaths, such as a notary public or county clerk. A declaration is a written statement made under penalty of perjury, such as “I declare under penalty of perjury that the information contained in this submission is true and correct.” (See 47 C.F.R. § 1.16.) The affidavit or declaration must be dated.

You may also provide other information that you deem relevant to our determination of your exemption request pertaining to the impact that captioning will have on your program or programming activities and any available alternatives that might constitute a reasonable substitute for the closed captioning requirements including, but not limited to, text or graphic display of the content of the audio portion of the programming.

Because of the public nature of FCC proceedings, your submission, as well as any supporting financial or other information provided, will be available for inspection by the general public. If your submission contains some specific information that you would like not to be made routinely available for public inspection, you may request its “confidential treatment, pursuant to FCC rules. (See 47 C.F.R. § 0.459.). If you seek such treatment, you must identify the specific information which you would not like to be made available to the general public and provide the basis for your request, for example, that the information is proprietary financial information, contains a trade secret, or is legally privileged. Also describe how disclosing the information to the general public may cause you substantial competitive harm. You must also submit a second version of your submission with the

Instructions for Filing a Supplement to a Closed Captioning Exemption Petition

As of April 30, 2014, you must send the FCC your supplemental information by e-mail to captioningexemption@fcc.gov. Petitions and supplemental materials may not be filed directly on the FCC's Electronic Comment Filing System (ECFS). At this time, the FCC's e-mail system does not accept attachments in the form of .ZIP files or file sizes larger than 13.3 megabytes. If a petitioner has concerns that its file size will exceed this limitation, please contact captioningexemption@fcc.gov. Because the FCC will upload petitions and any supporting information and documentation to ECFS, petitioners must follow the ECFS document format guidelines (<http://apps.fcc.gov/ecfs/userManual/upload/documents.jsp>) when sending petitions, supporting information, and documentation via e-mail. For more information about this electronic filing procedure, visit: <http://www.fcc.gov/encyclopedia/economically-burdensome-exemption-closed-captioning-requirements>.

You must include your case identifier number, which is located at the top of this letter, and CG Docket Number 06-181 in all correspondence with the FCC regarding your petition.
